Ruth was on the operating table for upward of twenty minutes and a general anesthetic was administered.

Before Miss Ruth had a fairly peaceful night, but that his fever, which he ranged around 101, had not abated.

It was the physician's opinion that Ruth would not leave the hospital for two weeks, if then.

The patients' satisfaction is substantiated by the entire mental calls from anxious friends of this sister and brother-in-law in general, inquiring about his condition.

All were assured Ruth's condition was satisfactory.

THREE HURT IN CRASH OF AUTOS

Two Brighton Men Sustain Brain Concussions in Commonwealth Ave. Accident

Three men were injured today in a head-on collision of autos at Commonwealth avenue and Berkeley street.

Frank Shaw, twenty-one years old, of No. 2 Converse street, Brighton, and William McLaughlin, forty-three, of No. 12 Dudley street, Brighton, suffered concussion of the brain and are in a serious way. Peter Clifford, twenty-seven, of No. 2 Converse street, Brighton, was cut and lacerated.

All three were treated at the Liberty Mutual Hospital in the Park Square Building and were later taken to their homes.

Maher was driving one of the cars, and the other two injured men were riding with him. Edwin O. Carlson, of No. 12 Eyre street, Brookline, was driving the other. He was not hurt.

PATRIOTIC MUSIC SUNDAY NIGHT

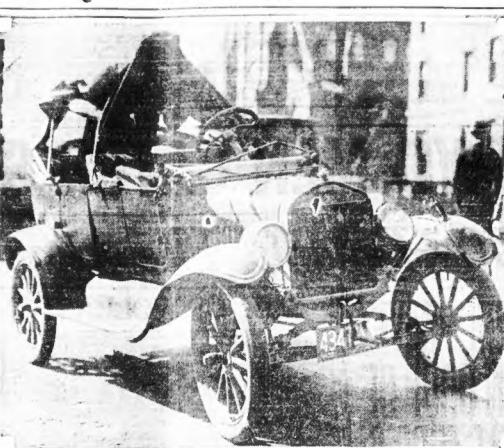

A patriotic program of organ music will be broadcast from the Boston Chamber of Commerce, Sunday evening, April 19, from 8 to 10 P. M., through station WJLB.

Wendell C. Glover, one of the best known organists in the country, is coming to Boston particularly to play on the chamber organ for this event. Mr. Glover played the opening recital on the organ at the Chamber of Commerce during the opening week.

POSTOFFICE CLERKS RE-ELECT PRESIDENT

The State Senate, upon recommendation of the Committee on Public Institutions, has today adopted the petition of James B. Brown, common for the Boston & Maine Railroad, authorizing the corporation to issue preferred stock. The measure was therefore referred to the Committee on Railroads, where it will be given a hearing. The measure was therefore referred last Tuesday.

VANQUISHED IN HEAD-ON CRASH

Three men were hurt, two seriously, when this car and another met at the corner of Commonwealth avenue and Berkeley street. Frank Maher of Brighton was the driver, and the other car in the mixup was operated by Edward C. Carlson of Dorchester. He was not hurt.

HEAT SHUT OFF; TENANTS ARE COMPLAINING

A score of complaints were received today by Herbert E. Ellis, chief clerk of the Municipal Rent and Housing Committee, regarding landlords shutting off heat in apartment houses.

Homeowners who complained said the owners of this type of dwelling claim that the law gives them the right to shut off heat after April 15.

Mr. Ellis says that no such law exists and that no excuse will be accepted by the municipal committee for the discontinuance of heat in apartment houses until warm weather prevails.

In Francis X. Mahoney, health commissioner, said that the action of landlords was a menace and a detriment to healthful conditions in the city.

town and Waltham, and it is a terrible calamity for the highway, along which the best of drivers usually proceed cautiously.

The State police today asked the police of Lawrence to make inquiry of the owner of the automobile, Mrs. Emma Miller of No. 116 Pleasant Valley road, as to how they came to be in possession of the machine.

MOVE TO PREVENT RIOT OVER CAILLAUX IN PARIS

Paris, April 17 (U.S.P.)—Police today ordered extra precautions to prevent violence tomorrow when the French cabinet will hold a meeting at a hotel in the evening and march to the grave of the unknown soldier at the Arc de Triomphe as a protest against the appointment of Joseph Caillaux to the cabinet. Caillaux is considered a traitor during the war on charges of having friendly relations with the enemy, but was recently acquitted.

CHIEF HANGS UP COP WHO QUIT HIS STATION

Patrolman Flynn of Danvers Just Had to Come to Court, but He Hadn't Ought To Salem, April 17.—When there is real excitement going on in court, you can't expect a policeman to stay at his station and twiddle his thumbs.

So Patrolman Thomas P. Flynn of Danvers balked at the station job and came up to Salem court today.

Just in time to run smack into his chief and get into a fine verbal whiff and a suspension for disobeying orders.

The argument was waged in the courtroom corridor and was exceedingly warm while it lasted. But the boss, Chief Connors, won, as losses go.

The suspension did not prevent Officer Flynn testifying, however, in the case of Almon W. Durkin, Danvers manufacturer, charged with drunkenness and with operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor.

The reason why Chief Connors wanted Flynn to remain on watch in the station was that the chief already had three policemen as prosecution witnesses.

Surprisingly, however, Flynn was called as a defense witness. Thus he testified that Durkin "terrific" was drunk.

PASTOR MARTYR TO CHURCH HE HAD BUILT

Pawtucket Priest Passes Away on Eve of Its Dedication

Pawtucket, R. I., April 15.—The eve of the dedication of the new different church he straggled down in a regular, the Rev. August Bonner, for 24 years the pastor of the First Baptist Church of Pawtucket, died at his home here, of disease incident to a general breakdown.

Mr. Bonner, who was in his 75th year, broke down as the result of the strenuous work of the past year in connection with the completion of the church. Two months he fought off disease and kept going on sheer will power alone.

The church was finally completed and the dedication was set for next Sunday. Then the pastor was taken ill and with his reserves virtually exhausted.

American Wins Big Scoop on 'Lone Wolf'

THE BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN was first virtually every where in Greater Boston with news of the conviction and sentencing of the "Lone Wolf."

It was a fitting climax, for throughout the trial this newspaper distanced competitors in publishing the real news of the moment.

At South Square, one of the biggest distribution points in the country, the Boston Evening American was eight minutes ahead of the next fastest paper with word of the verdict. One Boston evening newspaper was 29 minutes behind.

A similar feat was scored at Pemberton square. Americans were first on the stands or in the hands of newsmen at Summer and Washington streets, the South Station and North Station, Adams square, Cambridge, Brookline Village, Brighton, Allston, and over all the Back Bay.

Cooper, who was kidnapped Saturday in Chihuahua, Mexico, and held for $5000 ransom by bandits, arrived here with his wife and left for their home in Milwaukee.

Cooper was a bandage over his right arm, which was scratched by a piece of glass when the bandage first upon their automobile and broke the windshield.

GIRL'S SAVINGS STOLEN FROM STORE

Thieves Got Money Drawn From Bank to Pay for Mother's Operation

Money which Miss Doris Sanger, clerk in a Charles street antique shop had drawn from the bank to pay for an operation on her mother, was the booty two thieves obtained when they looted the desk in the shop while Miss Sanger was busy.

Miss Sanger, who was a member of Professor Baker's "41 Workshop" had drawn $250 from the bank only a short time before the men entered the store. The men were roughly dressed, and after looting about the shop took for a few moments they left the store without being waited on.

Miss Baker's mother, who is seriously ill, lives in Haverhill.

GOLDS-STORES LEAD SOCIETY CLUB WAR

New York Smart Set Divided Over Membership in Ultra-Exclusive Organizations

New York, April 17.—New York society is divided into factions over how exclusive a new after-theatre dancing and supper club should be. Today it discovered that a group of liberals had formed its own organization, secured best rights to the name Embassy, which was to feature the designation of the more exclusive club and had extended membership privileges to the Ultra-Conservative Embassy Club of London.

The liberal organization, as the Embassy Club, opened its Fifth avenue club house, with a dance while the conservative faction, under the name of Embassy Club of New York was waiting until October for its formal opening.

SOCIETY LEADERS SPLIT. When patrons of the Lido Avenue restaurant—one of the few supper clubs which have survived in New York—decided to add another to the list of clubs supplied by the fashionable restaurant was not socially eligible.

Such differences developed into factional fights and delayed the organization of the new society. Finally, however, Claude S. H. H. Williams and others of the ultra exclusive, began recruiting.

They appointed a committee on invitations, including Vincent Astor, Mrs. George F. Baker, Mrs. M. M. H. about Mrs. Jay Gould, W. K. Vanderbilt and Mrs. William H. Vanderbilt. While this committee was busy the liberals formed their own club and speeded up plans for any early opening.

Unless the conservative group which proposes to limit the membership to Boston, Chicago, Philadelphia and a few other cities, the liberals have imposed on each restriction.

NEW SCULPTOR DISCARDS ALL BORGLUM'S IDEAS

New York, April 17.—An entirely new design for the Stone Mountain Confederate memorial near Atlanta, Ga., is being created here in the studio of Augustus Lukeman, the sculptor who has succeeded the Borlume as artist in charge of the work which will transform the granite mountain into a monument to the heroes of the South.

Mr. Borlume dreamed of a host of Confederate soldiers streaming across the sheer face of the cliff and forming one gigantic figure of Lee.

The new design will be Mr. Lukeman's own and will include not only the figure of Confederate general on the mountain, but also a host of famous names.

ELLEN FINLEY, AN M. D. IS BRIDE OF PHYSICIAN

New York, April 17.—Miss Ellen Finley, a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John H. Finley and Dr. William Howard Kiser, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kiser, of Atlanta, Ga., were married yesterday at a quiet ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. Kiser is a graduate of Vassar and like her husband, a Yale graduate, has received a degree in medicine at Johns Hopkins University. They will make their home in Atlanta.

old baby or else "hard books" to a twelve-year-old child.

MANY PARENTS understand the matter. The indifference of children and others don't realize that what a child reads and hears between seven and fifteen years of age does more than all else, except heredity, to decide the child's future success and value.

A BOY OR GIRL OF TEN will take more interest in old English ballads, telling about Robin Hood or the Battle of Chevy Chase, than in some trashy "story." A ten-year-old girl will read the story of Oliver Twist, Nanon, or the good old-fashioned "Little Women" and such books will make her a better woman and a better mother.

Literary trash is the curse of the young mind today, as food trash is the curse of the stomach.

DOCTORS ANNOUNCE that prohibition is causing insanity.

"Wild boozing drinking parties are given. They lead down the mental fibre and directly cause insanity."

Prohibitionists presumably will reply: "Don't blame prohibition. Anybody that would drink boozing whiskey, would be crazy to be sane with."

EDITH GOULD'S OWN STORY of THE LIFE of a RICH GIRL

Gould Heiress Tells the Intimate Details of Life of Rich

By Edith Gould Wainwright

Daughter of George A. Gould and Granddaughter of Jay Gould

CHAPTER XXII

After the fall of the Goulds, I was left alone in the world. I had no money, no friends, and no home. I was a poor, orphaned girl, and I had to make my way in the world. I had to learn to live on my own, and I had to learn to love myself.

I had to learn to live on my own, and I had to learn to love myself. I had to learn to live on my own, and I had to learn to love myself. I had to learn to live on my own, and I had to learn to love myself. I had to learn to live on my own, and I had to learn to love myself.

PORTABLE GARAGES—TIRES AND AUTO ACCESSORIES

It's a Wise Man That Can Tell His Own Car

An amusing story is told by Mr. Carlson of the C. Carlson Company—

Some time ago a man brought in his automobile to be re-nickelled. It was a popular medium priced car with its radiator in the hood and peeling condition. However, the Carlson Company remedied it in their usual manner.

Later when the owner came to get his car he was not only greatly pleased and astonished with the results, but failed to recognize his own car and it was pointed to him.

NEW IDEAS ABOUT METAL GARAGES

Just about the time we get comfortably settled, along comes a new idea with a brilliant idea, that changes the whole picture. Edison showed things up a bit in his day with the electric light. Franklin an experiment in lightning with the lightning rod.

Now, when we begin to think of putting a garage on the back we discover that our old-fashioned building materials, wood and concrete, are being superseded by something more modern and more interesting—galvanized Keystone.

Now, when we begin to think of putting a garage on the back we discover that our old-fashioned building materials, wood and concrete, are being superseded by something more modern and more interesting—galvanized Keystone.

Keystone does not decay, it is built into good looking, fireproof portable garages, strong because of the Whitnedge Portable Building Co. of West Lynn, Mass. They build them so well and the cost is so small that car owners all over New England are rapidly being converted to the idea of metal garages as built by the Whitnedge people.

Whitnedge garages may be bought on conventional terms—cash, or a two-year or three-year lease will pay for itself in a short time.

Visitors are always welcome at the Whitnedge Garage factory in West Lynn. In order that visitors may see just what the building will look like in their own yard the Whitnedge Co. have erected an extensive exhibit of all the buildings they manufacture. They have built a new building in order which is free on request. Telephone is BRANFORD 3214.

TIRES NOW SOLD ON THE EASY PAYMENT PLAN

Automobile tires are now being sold on the installment plan by the Standard Tire Company of Boston. This is the first time in New England, is the first to introduce this sales method into the tire line.

"In the last twenty months," said Mr. Herman of the Standard Tire Company, "not one Bostonian tire has been returned for refund." Naturally enough, we have sufficient faith in Keystone tires to sell them on the "Pay as You Ride" plan. In fact we have been running this three to guarantee them for $9.00 to $10.00 more."

Congratulations to Walsh and Butler

They Defend the Senate Against Those Traducers Who Would Sap Its Power or Soil Its Honor

From among the New England people themselves, within the week, have arisen two spokesmen for and defenders of the United States Senate, each with a following that will command for him not only a regional and a respectful hearing but country-wide attention.

One is a Democrat, recently retired from distinguished service as a Senator from Massachusetts. The other, a Republican, is serving under an appointment by the Governor to fill a vacancy in the Senatorship from Massachusetts caused by the death of Henry Cabot Lodge. David I. Walsh of Clinton is the Democrat; William M. Butler of New Bedford is the Republican.

Before the members of the Civitan Club of Boston Senator Walsh went to the defense of the Senate, its powers and its rules, with an earnestness that re-enforced the effectiveness of his argument. He boldly charged that the criticism of the Senate in recent years has come from the organized pedlars in propaganda for sordid purposes.

He condemned the un-American plan of the League of Nations and anti-bonus press which is aiding and abetting the attempt to overthrow the Senate as "A CITADEL OF LIBERTY" and make of it either a NESTING PLACE for the CAGED CANARIES OF SPECIAL PRIVILEGES, or the VENTRILOQUIST OF "the COLONIAL habit of thought."

Now comes Senator Butler, in a speech before a club of residents of Boston, many of whom are also citizens of Massachusetts, in which he follows Senator Walsh to the defense of the Senate.

In a straightforward and no less convincing argument Senator Butler, according to published reports of what he said, opposes the adoption of any scheme that would Anglicize or Europeanize the Senate. He is against making the Senate a rubber stamp for any other branch of the government. He is against depriving the Senate of its constitutional right and duty to provide a forum for the voice of the minority, against the day when the sober second thought of the American people will become the voice of the majority in the control of foreign policy.

The fact that Senator Butler has recently been assigned to the Committee on Foreign Relations, and that he is to retain the chairmanship of the Republican National Committee gives to his defense of the Senate a significance and an importance that will not escape the attention either of the Nation or of foreign Nations.

The Boston Evening American congratulates Senator Walsh and Senator Butler in the name of those New Englanders who are Americans by choice and not merely citizens by birth or by adoption.

Americans by choice, North, East, South and West, are firmly resolved, as the Boston Evening American has the faith to believe, to "keep American American." One way to do that is to keep the Senate as the framers of the Constitution handed it down to us—"the citadel of liberty" and therefore "the greatest deliberative body in the world."

"This is a Senate," said Daniel Webster, "a Senate of equals, of men of individual honor and personal character, and of absolute independence. We know no masters, we acknowledge no dictators. This is a hall for mutual consultation and discussion, not an arena for the exhibition of champions."

And Americans by choice—beginning with an overwhelming majority of the New England people—are as determined today, as in the days of Daniel Webster, that the United States Senate shall remain "A HALL FOR MUTUAL CONSULTATION AND DISCUSSION, AND NOT AN ARENA FOR THE EXHIBITION OF CHAMPIONS."

Security for Railroads

Why Not for Farmers?

"Wheat Prices Break Fast." That's a line you may read occasionally in the financial news. Reports of good weather and fine crops come in, and that knocks two cents or five cents off the price of wheat. Later the news isn't so good, and the price goes up again.

Is there something wrong, perhaps, about our system under which farmers know that good crops and good weather mean low prices? In one column you read the Topeka & Santa Fe, a well-managed railroad, earned over 15 PER CENT on its common stock last year. How would railroad owners feel if good weather, big demand for freight cars, etc., equivalent to a good railroad crop, mean cut profits for the road?

You are told, "If it is all right for the government to guarantee profits to owners of railroad stocks, that never worked on a railroad in their lives, why is it all wrong, 'Socialism, Bolshevism and anarchy mixed,' to suggest guaranteeing profits for farmers who really do work on farms?"

Do You Gamble in Steel?

Look Out

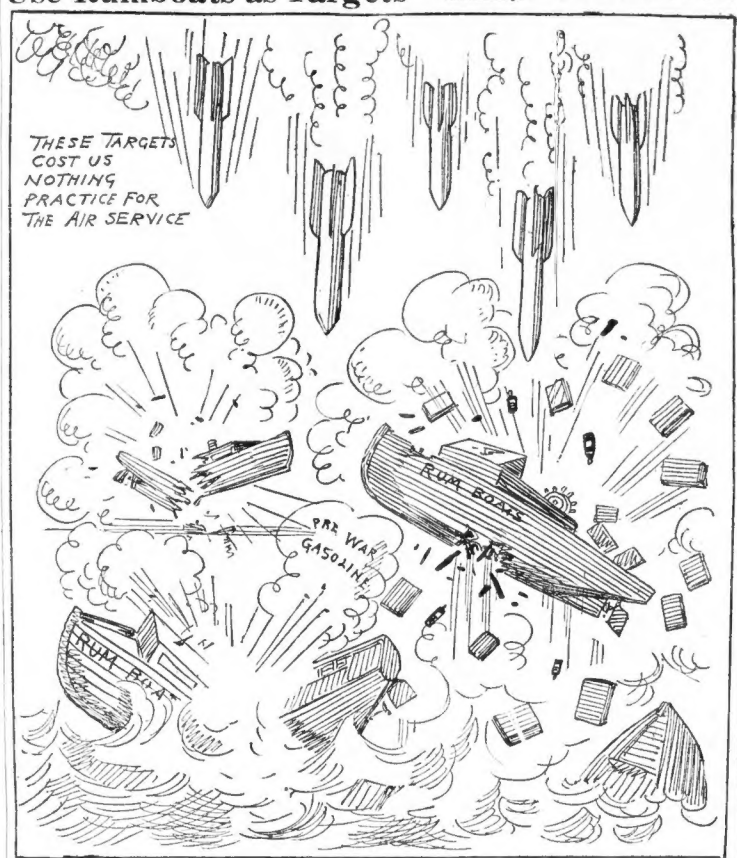

It was predicted that the big steel company at its latest meeting would do something about reducing prices of steel to stimulate business. But price cutting was not mentioned, at least officially.

If the big steel company ever DOES begin to cut prices in really drastic fashion, owners of stock in the little steel companies may be more interested than they CARE to be.

It is well for speculators in the minor steel stocks to bear in mind that the United States Steel Corporation can sell at a profit for less than it costs competitors to PRODUCE the steel. Fortunately for little companies Judge Cargill believes in giving everybody a chance, and does not want his big company to kill the little ones. "Avoid the appearance of evil" is his motto.

A WIFE'S MEDITATIONS

By Helen Rowland

IN the Spring, a young man's fancy lightly turns to a "romantic jag." This is the time of year, when the pulses beat to jazz, the heart plays a waltz, and the soul sings a sonata. When the motions go to the head, and make you dizzy that you do all sorts of foolish things. It is the magic and dangerous hour of the "Spring jag!"

Not all the "jags" in the world are alcoholic—there are dozens of other kinds. Shopping jags, house cleaning jags, dancing jags, poetic jags, sentimental jags, and even real jags.

A "jag" is merely that "heady" feeling you have from the effervescence of enthusiasm, the overflow of the imagination.

Anybody who is incapable of a Spring jag is only half-alive!

Nearly every girl gets a clothing jag, at this season, and goes out and buys and buys and buys dozens of useless, lovely, perishable, unuseful things—just for the delicious, fugacious joy of BUYING things.

Nearly every housewife is seized with a renovating jag, and finds her self plunging into dust for siddy wallpaper, sashy cottons, and

AMERICA GOVERNED BY ITS IDEALS

By DR. FRANK CRANE

A BOOK has recently been published called "The History of American Idealism."

It is commonly thought that Americans are materialistic, that they are all for the almighty dollar, that they have no appreciation of the higher things of life.

This book shows that America has always been governed by its ideals. It has done things in the ideal realm that no other nation dared to do.

For one thing it has put aside monarchy. This was an old and entrenched institution. It was generally assumed at one time that no nation could live without it. America believed in the people and confidently entrusted its government to their rule.

It has abolished aristocracy. There are no recognized classes in the United States. One man is as good as another. Upon the altar of democratic idealism it has sacrificed the beloved notion of caste.

It has made of public education a privilege and a duty. It has gone farther in educating the common people probably than any other nation. It has separated religion from education and pretty generally insists upon the training of every boy and girl. Education it has made all women voters. For some extent yet, but in America the tendency is to make it for all; that is, all have an opportunity here to receive what education they can hold.

Americans have burst the chains of slavery at the cost of much blood and struggle. This was an old institution that had a very secure hold upon men.

Americans have democratized art. America has helped European nations on their way to democracy in other lands.

America is just now making strenuous efforts to release itself from the bonds of greed and corporate domination. It has not finished yet with this task, but it is one which it recognizes and toward the goal of which it is on the way.

America has recognized woman as a citizen. By recent constitutional amendment it has made all women voters. For centuries governments were run by men. America was the first nation universally to recognize that the woman has equal privilege before the law.

America has got itself rid of the liquor traffic. This may be as yet imperfectly accomplished, but the mind of the nation is full set on eradicating itself of the liquor evil and in time it will accomplish this.

America has stood for the eradication of the drug traffic and the limitation of the production of drugs to medical and scientific needs.

On the whole, America has showed itself devoted to the ideals of the race and willing in every respect to sacrifice profits for ideals.

STRUGGLING WITH THE INFINITE

By Garrett P. Servis
Noted Astronomer and Writer on Scientific Topics of Popular Interest.

"Can you tell me which is more difficult for the human mind to comprehend—the universe in infinity or that it is finite? Both are equally incomprehensible, it is because of the nature of the infinity or that it is not probable that there exists on some other world a superlunary capable of understanding the what is beyond the reach of mortals on our planet?" L. K.

WHEN I was a little boy, just big enough to sit comfortably on the lower doorstep of our house, the country, with my shows on my knees and my head in my hands, I often had a solitary tussle with infinity and eternity, which, though not with scientific delight, somewhat like the curious sensation produced by turning swiftly on your heels until you feel dizzy. My mind seemed to become deliciously dizzy.

But I remember that, even at that time, although I never associated in dropping any salt on the tails of those wonderful birds, in infinity or eternity, yet I had no doubt as to all of their existence, while at the same time I most unquestionably believed that neither space nor time could have an end.

If I had understood then the subtle of the space-creators I might have concluded that they thought they were without and only because they were without and round a circle, but no doubt they would have been terribly repaid, as they do yet today.

"Well, then, what is the circle or the sphere, itself surrounded by a plain, by its very definition it cannot have an inside without an outside."

And, indeed, it is a matter of confusion. We originate our own difficulty when we invent the words "infinite" having an end and "infinity" having no end and then juggle with them, trying to ascertain if there is an instance that can readily understand finite with reference to finite, as, for instance, a field with reference to other fields around it but we cannot understand finite in terms of infinity, or vice versa.

If there is no infinity, why did we invent the term? Why should a boy almost at the start of his intellectual life have an instantaneous comprehension of the idea of infinity, eternally and eternally? If there is no eternity or infinity?

I am not ready to admit that it is really inconceivable that the universe (meaning thereby every thing that is finite, and that is infinite, I cannot, I confess, fully seize upon and picture its infinity, but I am still farther from being able to picture its finiteness.

And the same with time. Do you say: "Time cannot last eternally as space cannot extend infinitely." Well, then I reply: "You must assume that nothingness can have an existence, for by the very nature of thought you must have a contradiction, for how are you going to comprehend a super-intelligence, whether on some other planet, or among any planetary affluences, that can eternally exist, and from that we transcendental shall ever fully understand questions of this nature."

ONCE-OVERS

WHEN THE HOUSEWIFE'S FANCY TURNS ZEALOUSLY TOWARD

As the glad Spring season approaches your thoughts are mingled with both joy and vexation.

If you are an average woman, you are planning changes for the home and just how to go about it without antagonizing the family, or your deep secret.

If you are a man you may not forget certain old Springtime "changes" which disturbed your equilibrium. Your ardent wish for all future housecleaning is that you may be out of town when it is done, chances are few women who realize how upsetting these Spring changes are to a man's peace of mind.

Men are accustomed to planning their business in a systematic way and do not revolve their office furniture and arrangement to suit the styles in art.

They arrange things for utility and end, having settled upon a plan, don't want things disturbed. It changes the train of their thoughts.

These arrangements are always disquieting and, to the masculine mind, senseless.

If you are a good wife, you will try to keep your husband calm.
